About this object

For sale 6.6 ha property with a renovated wooden house 20 min drive from the city of Tartu. If you are looking for a home where nature, privacy and comfort are in balance, then this property may be just for you. The 6.6-hectare property located in the village of Kurista offers the opportunity to live peacefully and independently - the city is close, but the surroundings are quiet and beautiful. The house was built in 2021. The expanded and reconstructed wooden house combines rustic character and modern amenities. • The first floor has an open kitchen-dining room, living room, bathroom, spacious hallway and two exits to a large terrace. • The second floor has three bedrooms with balconies and a bathroom with an excellent layout. • The interior uses natural materials and warm tones that create coziness. Technical solutions ● The house has an electrical connection of 3 x 40A. ● Triple plastic windows ensure good heat retention and silence.
