About this object

A two-room apartment has come up for sale in the Seebi Street tower block, which is essentially brand new and very well maintained. The high floor creates spaciousness and adds privacy, and the windows offer spacious city views towards the morning and daytime sun.

When entering the apartment, you immediately notice the well-thought-out and functional solution. In the hallway there is a spacious wardrobe, where you can comfortably place both outerwear and other necessities. Next, there is a bright living room with an open kitchen - a pleasant space for everyday living with all the necessary integrated technology, which is also wonderfully suitable for hosting guests. The living room leads to a balcony, from which views open up over the surrounding city. The bedroom also has a large wardrobe, which offers enough storage space.
