About this object

A summer house for sale in Püünsi, near the sea, suitable for year-round living. The house and the greenhouse with grapes, built according to a special original project, are waiting for a new family!

The postmodern building was designed by one of Estonias best-known architects, Vilen Künnapu, and was built in 1990.

The facade with an architectural screen is on the north side of the building, a terrace and a greenhouse integrated with the house, opens to the south and west.

The heart of the house is a spacious, high-ceilinged living room with an interior balcony. A fireplace and wooden finishing add to the coziness.
